

W. O. Grubb is proud to announce the addition of George (Jigger) Tanner and Cecil Wilmoth to its management team. Jigger, one of the original founding members of American Heavy Rigging in 1991, brings a wealth of over 35 years of experience in managing large equipment intensive projects throughout the United States. “Jigger is going to be great asset; his experience in field, operations, and management roles will immediately allow us to improve our already high standards of service to our customers” says W.O. Grubb Steel Erection, Inc. President, Bill Grubb.

Cecil is returning to Grubb with 25 years of previous experience in the sales of crane and rigging services. Cecil’s previous experience of working with Grubb for 14 years, and his hardworking attitude will help expand the already growing national presence of the company. Mr. Grubb states “The addition of both Jigger and Cecil will add greater depth to our management team, where we can strengthen our large project equipment rental business. Our company has always believed that people are what make the difference, and Jigger and Cecil will play two important key roles to the continued success of this company.”
